Stages Repertory Theatre’s 2009 Gala promises a heapin’ helping of great country music celebrating 30 years of extraordinary theatre in Houston. Gala Chair Carolyn Farb plans the musical celebration of the season that will help Stages continue to produce sensational shows of national acclaim. Stages’ productions are commended as some of the best in the country and Stages’ artists are nationally known as leaders in innovation and craft. Stages will honor Board President George Lancaster for his exemplary leadership and service to the theatre with the first annual Theodore Award for Leadership Excellence named in honor of Stages’ Founding Artistic Director Ted Swindley.

Throughout the evening, country artists of local and national renown will entertain the crowd with the great hits of legend Patsy Cline. The fantastic Four Seasons Hotel Houston provides the backdrop for the evening that includes an eye-popping live auction, Stages’ consistently remarkable silent auction, and a seated dinner for cowboys and cowgirls.
